

Bitterroot

Lewisia rediviva
Miner's Lettuce Family

MAY-JUN

H 2"-3"

- Prefers well-drained, gravelly sites
- Name is derived from the leader of the Lewis and Clark expedition and was chosen as the Montana State flower
- Also called the "Resurrection Flower" for its ability to survive a year without water