

Mountain Mahogany

Cercocarpus montanus

Rose Family

- Has very attractive, almost evergreen leaves and non-showy flowers that are followed by feathery, silvery-white fruits
- Hairy fruits are carried long distances by wind
- After falling to the ground, the oddly shaped fruits twist into the soil