

center
—for—native plants

Twinflower

Linnaea borealis
Honeysuckle Family

JUN-AUG

H 4"-6"

- The common name Twinflower comes from the nodding flowers that are born in pairs
- An evergreen ground cover that often forms a carpet of trailing stems and flowers on the forest floor
- Linnaea borealis was reported to be the favorite plant of famous botanist Carl Linnaeus