

Photo © Al Schneider, www.swcoloradowildflowers.com

Wood's Rose

Rosa woodsii
Rose Family

MAY-JUL

W 2'-3'

H 3'-5'

- Effective in erosion control and forming ornamental hedgerows due to its quick ability to colonize open ground by sprouting suckers
- Rose hips remain on plant throughout winter and are food for insects, birds, and mammals
- Used by Native Americans for food, medicine, and ceremonies