

center
—for—native
plants

Yellow Columbine

Aquilegia flavescens
Buttercup Family

- Produces pockets of nectar at the closed end of each petal, attracting pollinators with long tongues, such as butterflies and hummingbirds
- Native habitat consists of mountain meadows, open forests, streambanks, and rocky slopes