

Photo ©Al Schneider, www.swcoloradowildflowers.com

Horsemint

Agastache urticifolia
Mint Family

JUN-AUG

H 24"-36"

- Also known as Nettleleaf Giant Hyssop
- Spreads by underground rootstock, but is not considered aggressive
- Pollinated by bees
- Leaves can be brewed into a pungent, anise-flavored tea and used as a cooking spice