

center
—for—native
plants

Mountain Hollyhock

Iliamna rivularis
Mallow Family

JUN-AUG

H 24" -60"

- Native habitat consists of stream banks and mountain meadows
- Seeds can remain viable in the soil for more than 50 years
- One of the first plants to appear following a fire because seeds germinate readily after heating or scouring