

Quaking Aspen

Populus tremuloides
Willow/Poplar Family

- Prized for its leaves that flutter, creating unique sound and visual effects
- Grows at a fast rate of more than 24" per year
- As one of the largest living organisms, aspens grow in stands (called clones) and reproduce primarily by sending up sprouts from their roots