

Photo ©Al Schneider, www.swcoloradowildflowers.com

Photo ©Al Schneider, www.swcoloradowildflowers.com

Rocky Mountain Beeplant

Peritoma serrulata
Cleome Family

- Prolific self-seeding annual
- Great plant for disturbed lands
- Has many showy flowers that produce a large amount of nectar
- Excellent insectary forb that attracts diverse populations of arthropods
- Fruits are pendulous and are 1"-3" long
- Mostly found in grassland prairies and along roadsides