

Photo ©Al Schneider, www.wcoloradonativeplants.com

Photo Credit: Peter Lesica

Sandbar Willow

Salix exigua
Willow Family

JUN-AUG

W 8'-10'

H 8'-15'

- Quickly forms dense thickets
- Commonly used for streambank & lake shore stabilization
- Tolerant of flooding, drought, & poor soils
- Primarily pollinated by beneficial insects but is also wind pollinated
- Also known as Streambank Willow and Coyote Willow