

Photo ©Al Schneider, www.swcoloradowildflowers.com

Showy Goldeneye

Heliomeris multiflora
Sunflower/Aster Family

JUL-SEP

H 12"-20"

- Has long-lived bright yellow flowers that resemble a small sunflower
- One plant can produce 25 or more flower heads
- Has a deep taproot and often growing in small, bushy clumps
- Common on foothills, roadsides, and dry open areas