

center
— for — native
plants

Photo Credit: Drake Barton, Montana Field Guide

Violet

Viola adunca
Violet Family

- Can be used in pollinator gardens, woodland gardens, meadows, and as a low-growing groundcover
- Forms slender rhizomes
- Grows stemless in early season bloom; later produces upright stems
- Has explosive seed pods that will travel great distances
- Critical component of butterfly habitat restoration

