

Western Hemlock

Tsuga heterophylla
Pine Family

W 30' [[III]III]III] H 100'–150'

- Often characterized by it's drooping top and pendulous branches
- Fern-like foliage gives good privacy screening
- Great accent tree planted alone or used in drift plantings
- Hemlocks are a favorite nesting tree for a wide variety of birds
- Prefers shady, moist sites