

center — for — native plants

Western Pasqueflower

Anemone occidentalis
syn. Pulsatilla occidentalis
Buttercup Family

- Early delicate blooms elongate & display large, whimsical seed heads
- Displays semi-evergreen fern-like leaves before & after blooming
- 'Pasque' is latin for Passover, denoting it blooms during Passover & Easter
- All plant parts are considered toxic to humans & animals
- Also known as Old Man of the Mountain & Truffala Trees (Dr. Seuss)

MAY-JUN

W 12"-24"

H 12"-24"

