

Woolly Groundsel

Packera cana
Aster Family

- Clump forming
- Drought tolerant
- Suitable for rocky/dry sites
- Felt-like hairs on basal leaves give plant a woolly appearance
- Clumps of yellow daisy-like flowers form on a single stem
- Silvery leaf color provides great contrast in landscapes
- Pollinated by many beneficial insects

MAY-JUL

W 10"

H 8"-12"

