

center
—for—native
plants

Photo Credit: Matt Lavin

Great Basin Wildrye

Leymus cinereus
(syn. Elymus cinereus)

Grass Family

- Large, robust cool season bunchgrass
- Provides vertical contrast in landscapes
- Adapts to all soil conditions (dry-wet); does not thrive in shallow soils
- Has a deep fibrous root system helpful in stabilizing hillsides and disturbed areas

